LAKE MAGGIORE

JAN. 12th, 1922.

What is so lovely as an Italian lake, - - - what so grandly beautiful as Il Lago Maggiore, - - - the Major Lake of Northern Italy, studded with exquisite islands, such as the Isola Bella, - - - The Island Beautiful, - - - and within sight of the ~~mountain~~ snow-capped mountains of Switzerland. No place on earth has quite the soft allurements of an Italian lake and, in proportion to its size, the loveliness of Maggiore stands supreme. Quaint little steamers fly hither and thither; picture-like little palaces and smiling villas dot the happy shores, while trim little towns border the lake and crown ^{the} terraces and cliffs of the surrounding mountains which hold in their bosom, this loveliest and largest of Italy's lakes of Paradise.
